Storage compartment
for ammunition

Need

Armed security personnel are an integral part of a financial institution's security system and the firearms they use to protect the premises need to be stored in a reliable and secure storage unit. The absence of such storage is a security lapse for it could lead to the pilferage of arms and ammunition and the risk of guns and ammunition falling into unscrupulous hands.

Offering

The Godrej Gun Cabinet comes in various sizes from 2 Gun storage to 6 Gun storage and can safely secure double barrel and pump action guns, along with their ammunition.
